MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 11.

AN INDISCRETE REMARK .- A sensation, was caused in Bristol, Tenn., on Saturday, when Charlie Worley, an ex-chief of police kicked Thomas H. Fox, a society man, out of his livery stable. Fex is reported to have used insulting language towards the female sex in general. Worley asked him : "Would you be our enough to take advantage of a lady if you could?" "Yes" replied the man of seciety. At this Worley hurled many bad epithets at him. There the matter stopped. The news epread at once that Fox had made the remark that he could kies any woman in Bristol. Since that time he has been in hot water. He went to Worley's stables Saturday and asked him if he meant to insuit him (Fox) the other day. 'I'd owing to what to would take to insuit a man like you. Of concert I mouth it is a first to insuit a man in the condition. course I wanted to insult you if I could."
For said semething about satisfaction, whereupon Worley lead him to the door and kicked him into the street, with the remark: "That's eat's action enough for you." Fox went to Bristol from Richmond well recommended. The organization of a committee to ask him to leave town is talked of, others say tar and fe thers. Worley is an old bachelor and has no mother or sisters in Bristol.

FOR ALEXANDRIA, FOR VIRGINIA AND FOR DEMOCRACY.

Features-Associated Press Dis. patches, Washington and Richmond Correspondence, Daily Market Reports, Local News and matters of interest to Virginia, but more especially to this city and section of the State.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the NINETY-ONE YEARS of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and work shop it has become in-

The GAZETTE, situated as it is so close to Washington, the great centre of news, enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press Dis. PATCHES from every part of the world; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of the United States as well as from every part of the habitable globe. Consequently it is an every-day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals about twelve or fifteen hours earlier than the morning papers. Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE. The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs in and near the city, and this feature will, as ever, receive careful attention. Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with merchants is its afternoon market reports from all the great centres of the country.

The GAZETTE'S circulation in this city is now larger than at any time in its history and is steadily increasing, especially among those who consult its advertising columns before purchasing.

The COUNTRY EDITION is nearly as large as that of the daily. This edition is sent out three times

The advantages of advertising in this paper are apparent.
